Index to software that enhances web site usage

Description of Free Software	Click Here to Download
The spinning compass on Unbeaten Path's home page is intended to provide navigation for our web site. The compass won't spin and the menu system attached to it won't work unless your PC has a copy of Adobe Flash Reader version 9 or higher. As of late March '09, the most recent version of Flash Reader available for free download off Adobe's site was version 10.0.22.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Unbeaten Path's web site content includes a generous number of PDF files. Navigation links are embedded in those PDF files. Unless you have Adobe Reader version 8 or higher on your PC, the functionality of those PDF pages will be limited ... or ... you may not be able to see them at all. The most recent version of Reader available for free download off Adobe's site is version 9.1. The first time you open a PDF file on Unbeaten Path's site, there will be a delay while Adobe Reader boots up.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
The free copy of Java available from Sun Microsystems will optimize your PC's performance on a variety of internet sites, including this one. The Java script server provided by Microsoft is usually just as good. However, in our experience, it isn't universally as good as the "real thing" from Sun. A click to the right will take you to the Sun web site.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
